PLANS MADE FOR BIG HOMECOMING

DATES FOR GREEN TOWNSHIP REUNION ARE SEPTEMBER 14-16

ON ELABORATE SCALE

Opening Day Honors Soldiers and Sailors, Second is for Old Settlers and Third is Barbecue Day

The dates for the Green Township Annual Homecoming held every year at Quitman, was set for September 14-15-16 when the officers met at the Branson Hotel last Saturday night. These three days of homecoming will be conducted on a more elaborate scale than they have been previously although they will be along the same lines as in former years, says J. J. McDonald, secretary of the Green Township Annual Homecoming.

The opening day will be in honor of veteran soldiers and sailors, who will be served with a special free dinner. There will also be other forms of entertainment planned for the entertainment of the returned soldiers and sailors.

The second day will be Homecoming Day, the reunion for all former settlers of Green Township. Special prizes will be given to the oldest living man and woman who at one time made their home in that township and are present at the reunion.

It is the opinion of the committee that the third day will be larger and have more attractions than in any previous year. This day will be barbecue day. The committee will select a number of the nicest beeves from the ranch of R. I. Bilby and will have them prepared by persons who are experts in preparing barbecue meat.

Attractions for all sizes and ages have not been overlooked by the committees. A band will be there for all three days and thrilling free attractions will be given twice daily. The Fletchor Stock Company will have their large tent and good casts for evening entertainments. There will be no admission charge to enter the grounds, where there will be a merry-go-round and other amusements.

The officers who were elected Saturday night to take charge of the homecoming for this year were: Chairman, W. F. Branson; secretary, J. J. McDonald; and treasurer, Dick G. Brooks.

BUTCHERS TAKE TOWNSEND GROCERS TO 6-2 CLEANING

"Chuggy" Smith Shoots Over Fast Ones but Is Wild—Windjammers And DeMolays Today.

The Bloody Butchers took the Townsend Grocers to a cleaning on the college diamond Yesterday to a score of 6-2. The meat choppers pounded the Townsend pitcher for a number of hits and several errors on the part of the other members of the Grocerymen let in runs.

"Chuggy" Smith, Townsend pitcher, also walked a number of men. His pitching was speedy but erratic. One inning he would strike out the first three up and the next he would walk a man with no excuse whatsoever.

The line-ups were:

Butchers: H. Buhler, c; P. Buhler, p; Butcher, 1b; John Knox, 2b; Forsyth, ss; Myers, 3b; Reimer, cf; Quinn, lf; Buck Knox, rf.

Townsend: Wiles, c; Smith, p; Costello, 1b; McDonald, 2b; Murrin, ss; Pope, 3b; Farmer, lf; Stinson, cf; Bashum, rf; Umpire, Mapel.

The next game in the twilight league will be this evening when the DeMolays will play the Musicians.

Tommorw evening the Printers will play the Cigar Makers, if the question of eligibility of some of the tobacco twisters can be ironed out.

DEMPSEY FIGHT PICTURES TO BE SHOWN DESPITE LAW

Lawyers Declare Statute Refers to Prize Fights and Bout Was Boxing Exhibition.

New York, July 26.—Motion pictures of the Dempsey-Carpentier fight will be shown all over the United States despite the federal statute which makes it illegal to transport pictures of prize fights from one state to another, according to announcements by the owners, F. C. Quimby, of F. C. Quimby, Inc. Quimby said the pictures would be shown here.

Legal experts have advised Quimby that the law applies to pictures of "prize fights" whereas the Dempsey-Carpentier affair came under the classification "boxing exhibition."

CALL FOR CLOTHING FOR REFUGEES IS STRONGER

Penelope Club Sends In More Garments To Miss Betty Turner.

"The call for clothing for the relief of the refugees of Europe is gorwing stronger every day," says Miss Betty Turner, secretary of the Nodaway County Chapter of the American Red Cross. She is very pleased with the work that the people of this county are doing and gave special praise to the work done by the active chapter at Skidmore.

The Penelope Club added three garments last week to the collection which Miss Turner is preparing to send to National Headquarters at New York. These were three small skirts. One was about large enough to fit a child 14 years old, another a child of 10 and the other to fit a child 8 years old.

These skirts, althought made of used material will be very servicable to the children who will receive them. The cloth is dark colored and closely woven so that it will be very warm. They are made to be worn with middy blouses and Mrs. C. C. Helmers and Mrs. C. D. Bellows have volunteered to furnish the middies to go with the skirts.

COUNTY COURT GIVES OLD BRIDGE TO COMMISSIONERS

Steel Span Formerly Near Burlington Junction Will Be Erected North of Parnell.

The county court, which met with the commissioners of the Platte River drainage district yesterday compromised with them by giving the district a steel bridge to replace the Felton bridge northwest of Parnell. The county agreed to furnish the bridge and the district will erect it, keep up repairs, furnish the floor, foundation, and transportation from Burlington Junction.

The court gave the commissioners the bridge near Burlington Junction which was washed out about a year ago this spirng and was replaced by a bridge of 160 foot span. The old bridge, which will be put in near Parnell, is all steel and 108 feet long.

The judges of the county court met with the commissioners of the district and a representative of the Chicago, Great Western railroad last Friday in regard to a change in the road made necessary by the proposed Drainage District. The representative of the railroad favors the proposed change inasmuch as it will do away with a bad grade crossing and a tresele which is badly in need of repairs. He would not make any statement as to the action he thought the company would take however, until his report went through the necessary red tape.

WANTS COMPLETE RECORDS OF DEAD

V. F. W. HONOR SOLDIERS WHO DID NOT RETURN

ARE HONORARY MEMBERS

Post Has Twenty-Eight Names—Information in County Clerk's Office is Lacking in Details

Twenty-eight Nodaway county men who died in foreign battle fields will be made honorary members of the Seth Ray David Post of the Veterans of Foreign Wars, in accordance with a command from National Headquarters of the organization at New York City.

Edward Condon, commander, was busy in the County Clerk's office this morning getting the names of all the boys of this country who died in action overseas. It is the plan of the post to take the names of all of these men and have them painted in a memorial for the local post.

In addition to the twenty-eight names which Mr. Condon found and was sure had died in foreign fields there were fourteen names which he thought should be included with the ones to be made honorary members of the post but their records were not complete and he could not tell if they died in France or if they died in camp in this country.

The post is taking its list of men from the files which Fred Smith, county clerk, has in his office. This list was made up during the war from the report of the exemption board and the Red Cross. These are thought now not to be so complete as they might have been because of the censorship the government exercised during the war. Mr. Smith said he would like for friends of ex-service men to send him information which would help him to make these reports accurate.

The list of men which the Seth Ray David Post wants includes not only the men who died in action in France during the late war but will also include the men who died in Cuba during the Spanish American War or in any other foreign lands or beyond the 3 mile limit on the seas.

The following men's records are complete:

Ray David, Tony William Bears, Walter Lonzo Bradley, W. J. Bradley, Floyd Virgil Colter, Rolla A. Dicks, Alvin Manor Dunn, William B. Flannagan, Cecil Dale Gates, Arthur I. Graves James Edward Gray, Roy David Hunterson, Roy Hartman Kent, John Ray Kuntzman, Francis M. Johnston, James William Keith, Russell Crawford Laughlin, Alfred C. Myer, Otto L. Mowry, Ira J. McCollum, John James McGarry, Robert U. O'Howell, Carl Richard Ogelsby, Warren W. Reakseeker, Emmett V. Ripley, Joseph B. Schweback, Glen D. Ulmer, David Thomas Parmley.

Mr. Smith does not have a complete record of the following men and would appreciate any information which any one can supply concerning their records.

Chester Martin Crain, Barnard; Rolla A. Dicks, Burlington Junction; Olin Martin Dunn, Barnard; Julius Strueby, Jr. Skidmore; Harry F. Stewart, Maryville; Frank Miller Wiley, Maryville; James Harvey Hughes, Skidmore; Jesse Anderson, Maryville.

Mrs. Eugene Smith and daughter, Cordelia, and son, Jack, of Oklahoma City, Okla., and Mrs. Mulvihill of St. Joseph arrived in Maryville by car this morning for an extended visit at the home of the County Clerk, Fred Smith.

BILL WOULD ENLARGE MEMBERSHIP OF HOUSE

Under Proposed Plan, Missouri Loses One Representative, While Sixteen States Would Gain.

Washington, July 26.—Reapportionment legislation providing for a house of representatives of 460 members as compared with the present membership of 435 has been agreed upon by the house census committee. Chairman Siegel was ordered to report out such a bill as soon as possible.

Under the reapportionment legislation two states, Maine and Missouri would each lose a member and sixteen states would gain members. Texas would gain two and Arkansas, Georgia, Illinois, Oklahoma and Washington one each.

WHO WANTS LITTLE CHLOERINE NOLAND?

HARD TIMES AND SICKNESS BREAKS UP A HOME

SHE IS 9 YEARS OLD

"We Are Very Poor and I Am Sick All the Time", Says Appeal of Father.

Somewhere there must be a home for little Chloerine Noland. Until hard times and sickness and misfortune came to the little house at Conception, she was happy with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. S. Noland. But now the home is to be broken up, and the father is looking for someone who wants a daughter the age of 9-year-old Chloerine and who can give her the love and care which Fate now threatens to deny her.

"I would like to find a home for her, as we are very poor, and I am sick all of the time," says the father's appeal to the Democrat-Forum.

How Chloerine feels about it is shown in the following poem, which she herself wrote recently.

Our Broken up Home

A road goes up a pleasant hill
And a little house looks down
Ah! but I see the roadway still
And the day I left the town.

The day I left my father's home,
It's been a year ago,
And my heart was breaking as I roamed
The long, long road I know
The long,long road by hill and plain
I was tired and my heart yearned
But my hopes stayed bright in sun and rain,
And a voice that called to me
A voice that called me over the hill
And out of the little town:
Ah! I see the roadway still,
And the good house looking down.
The house and place that can never be sold
As I started brave away,
But said with a heart of blessing, go
And it's followed me day by day.
It's followed me down the road to this year,
For a father's heart is true,
And there'll be no mother's tears
For the deeds that others may do.
When God calls us to his heavenly home
Where there'll be no mortgages or loans
It will be impossible for the lawyers of Oregon
To take our happy home.
The road that left a pleasant hill,
Where a little house looks down.
Ah, but I love the road way still,
And the land beyond the town.

BILLS ARE PASSED TO REDUCE TAXES

SENATE AGREES ON FOUR OF HYDE'S MEASURES.

ROAD BILL IS AMENDED

Senates Definition of Hard Surface Does Not Include "Clay Bound Gravel."

Jefferson City, July 26.—The senate and house made a clean sweep of the 4 bi gtax reduction bills yesterday. All the conference reports were agreed to and the measures were passed by both houses and sent to Governor Hyde for his approval. The bills are practically the same as recommended by the governor.

As passed by both houses, these bills will reduce state taxes more than 4½ million dollars annually. The income tax, deemed by most members as the most important, is reduced from 1½ per cent to 1 per cent. The exemptions have not been changed. The senate held out for increasing the exemptions, but finally gave way to the house.

A Long Debate.

There was a long debate in the house this afternoon before the report of the conference committee on the inheritance tax was agreed to, but this was finally accomplished. The change in the law is that the wife or husband will receive exemptions to $20,000. Blind or feeble minded children will receive exemptions to $15,000, while normal children will receive exemptions to $5,000. Under the present law widows receive exemptions up to $15,000.

It required two conference reports to get the senate to agree to the house amendment reducing the state revenue tax from 10 cents, where the regular session of the legislature placed it, to 7 cents on the $100 valuation. The senate held out for 8 cents, but finally gave way and the house quickly adopted the report.

The corporation franchise tax measure was the last one. The conference over this measure was long. Both bodies were together all along on reducing the tax from $1 on each $1,000 of capital stock and surplus to 50 cents, but, as the senate passed the bill, surplus was defined to mean any working capital or surplus above the liabilities.

The house rejected this provision and then the senate came back with an amendment containing a provision, under which bank and trust company deposits shall be taxed to owners of the deposits and not to the surplus of these institutions.

This called for a long conference, but the house finally receded. It may be stated that deposits have never been taxed as surplus of banking institutions. They are usually listed as a liability.

The senate late yesterday began the consideration of the house road bill in committee of the whole. The first difficulty encountered was the definition of "hard surface roads." The house bill defines "clay bound gravel" as the minimum type of hard surface road material. The Ralph bill passed by the senate defined gravel as the lowest type.

By a vote of 18 to 11 the senate eliminated "clay bound gravel" from the definition and substituted the definition of Senator Blodgett of St. Louis which is "concrete, comparable types, macadam, gravel or equivalent of gravel to be approved by the commission."

Senator Ralph protested against writing into the road law such minor restrictions as would prevent the state from obtaining high class highway commissioners or engineers. It also was pointed out that in case of failure the highway commission later might blame the legislature for stipulation in minute details the kind of gravel binder it should use.

Some of the provisions of the Ralph bill which were written into the house bill by the senate last night were:

An earth road shall not be considered a hard surface road.

The governor is given power after public hearing to remove a highway commissioner for inefficiency, neglect of duty or misconduct in office.

The lega ladvice to the commission shall be given by the attorney general instead of by special counsel to the highway commission at a salary of $3,600 a year, as provided in the house bill.

Secretary to John D. Rockefeller, Sr., Denies Report, However,—Gates are Locked

New York, July 26—The astounding report that John D. Rockefeller, Sr., the world's richest man, is contemplating matrimony, which spread through high financial circles today was denied this afternoon by the oil king's secretary at his Tarrytown estate.

When the International News communicated the report to his secretary, she said, "That it is perfect nonsense. Mr. Rockefeller is all right."

The gates of the estate were closed to newspaper men.

COME AND GET ME SAYS GOV. SMALL

INSTRUCTS ATTORNEYS NOT TO OPPOSE COURT'S ORDER.

WARRANTS ARE ISSUED

Illinois Governor Charged With Defrauding State of $2,500,000 by Misuse of Funds.

Springfield, Ill., July 26.—"Come and get me". This was the substance of the reply from Gov. Small today, when informed that Judge Smith had denied him immunity from the state criminal procedure.

"Tell my attorneys not to attempt to delay the order of the court issuing warrants for my arrest" said the Governor.

Small reached the Capital today without a body guard and appeared unconcerned about the case.

Springfield, Ill., July 26.—Governor Len Small of Illinois today was ordered arrested on charges involving the misuse of state interest and funds. His arrest was ordered by Circuit Judge Smith in a decision denying the right of a Governor to immunity from the State criminal code.

Warrants charging the Governor with operating a confidence game and embezzlement involving $2,500,000 were in the hands of Circuit Clerk Koesn when the Judge handed down his informal decision.

The court offered to grant the Governor a "reasonable period" in which to submit to arrest but warned the governor's attorney that the sheriff would be compelled by law to serve the warrants.

Mondell said Harding was in favor of a continuous session pending the disposition of the tariff and changes in the internal revenue laws.

LAMKIN TELLS WHY HE LIKES IT HERE

DID NOT HAVE TO LEAVE WASHINGTON, HE SAYS.

A BIG JOB BEFORE HIM

Must Have Cooperation of All Citizens, Business Men are Told at Weekly Luncheon.

"You people of Maryville, or may I say we people of Maryville, and the people of Northwest Missouri must put over this job of continuing to build up the State Teachers' College," Uel W. Lamkin, president-elect of the institution, told members of the Chamber of Commerce last night at their regular weely luncheon.

"I did not come to you to put over a big job myself. I can't do it myself. I am not going to try," he said "I am like the man in charge of our Texas office of the Board of Rehabilitation. He was asked, 'How does it happen that you, the head of this office, seem to have your desk clean all the time.'

" 'I thought you fellows wanted this job done,' he said, 'So I went out and hired a couple of men and had it done,'

Why He Came Back.

"Several people have asked me why I came back to Northwest Missouri. I came back, first because I wanted to come. Contrary to the ideas of some, I did not have to leave Washington.

"I am interested in Missouri, Gentlemen, laying all levity aside, the most serious job the American people have before them is that of the educating the boys and girls in the country districts. You and I are going to be confronted with the problem of proper education of the boys and girls in the country schools and the small towns so that we can keep this country what is ought to be.

"I came back to Missouri not only because of that problem, but because I like the country and the small town. Washington is the most beautiful city in which to live, but I like the country. I like the people that live in the country and in the small town. I like to be called by my first name. I don't like the "doctors' and I don't like the "professors'

"President Eliot of Harvard once said he thought he had lived long enough to be called 'Mister'. It is my ambition to live long enough that I can be called Uel.

Problems to be Faced

"I am not unmindful of the fact that until the first of September at least, I am not the head of the Northwest Missouri State Teachers' College. Until then I cannot speak with authority. But there are some things you people are going to have to help us with. We are wrestling with the problem of making a $125,000 appropriation meet $160,000 in salaries. There is only one way that I know of to meet the problem, and that is to get enough students to get the difference from the incidental fund.

"We have departments that will have to be developed. We are living in the great agricultural section of the state, and we are going to have to develop our agricultural department.

"We are living in a commercial age, and we are going to have to develop our commercial department.

"Our manual arts and household departments must be developed.

"It is going to require time, require money, require thought, require your cooperation. We want your help in developing the school. I know we will have it.

LARGEST CIRCULATION IN NODAWAY COUNTY

FARMER IS A GOOD FELLOW: CARRIES ON DESPITE REVERSES

"After all, boys you have got to hand it to the farmer for being a pretty good sport," remarked J. E. McGinley, substantial farmer and stockman of Otoe county, Neb., to a small group of stockmen at the St. Joseph stock yards recently where he marketed 4 loads cattle and hogs. "If he wasn't a good sport," went on Mr. McGinley, " a lot of people would go hungry for bread. Everyone knows something of the plight the farmer has been in during the past year and how his business has been adversely affected in this period of readjustment. With large quantities of wheat on the farms last fall, worth less than it cost to produce, the farmer did not quit raising wheat. He sowed another crop. Then last spring, with big quantities of old corn on hand and the price down around 35c to 40c in the country, the farmer hitched up old Dobbin and Bess and put in another crop of corn. I have heard the farmer described as a pessimist and calamity howler but would a merchant, for instance, with a large stock of goods on his shelves that he could not get cost price for, place his order for more goods? Yet the principal in the 2 cases is virtually the same. The farmer is, instead of being a pessimist, a perpetual optimist. If he hasn't the ups and downs he has to contend with, the continual gambling with the weather and markets, would demoralize agriculture to such an extent that the world would go hungry, famine stalk thru the land. But the farmer goes on, despite reverses, producing food to feed man and beast. Like the cobbler he sticks to his last. Farming is his business. He never quits till he has to. He is a little like the man who has been on a certain job a long time. Someone comes along, holds out some glittering inducements for him to make a change. He ponders the matter a while, but turns the offer down. He is content to follow the old job that he knows the most about. The farmer is not easily given to quitting, to rainbow chasing. When he quits the farm it is, as a rule, because he is forced to by sheer necessity, or because he is too old, worn out to continue the hard knocks any longer."

FIRST MATCH IS PLAYED IN MEN'S DOUBLES TOURNEY

Mapel and Williams Defeat Bebout and Wells in Two Deuce Sets, 8-6, 10-8.

The annual men's double tournament at the College has started, and the first match was played off yesterday afternoon with Harley Bebout and Charles Wells against O. C. Williams and William Mapel. The latter team won in two straight sets 8-6 10-8.

The match was closely contested but devoid of sensational playing. It was won on straight, accurate tennis. Williams and Mapel played a cross-court game, placing their returns to their opponents backhand.

The other matches of the preliminaries will be played off today. They are:

Earl Bland and Bill Richards vs Ora McPherron and Fred Kurtz.

Gordon Roach and Paul Pickens vs John Phipps and Ralph Eversole.

This will be a short tourney, as there are only three matches in the preliminaries. There will be a bye given in the preliminaries, the winner of the Roach-Pickens and Phipps-Eversole match resting until the finals. Williams and Mapel will play the winners of the Bland-Richards and McPerron-Kurtz match to see who will be the other team of finalists. This will probably be the best match of the tournament as both teams are about evenly matched.

The winning team of the tournament will be presented with a trophy by Coach Rice, who is directing the matches.

Hot Weather Stumps Experts of Uncle Sam; Worse in Europe

Washington, July 26.—Uncle Sam's weather experts are stumped.

The hot wave prevailing not only throughout the United States, but the whole of the north and south temperature zones, is, they declare without rhyme, rule or reason.

While the United States has been in the grip of a heat wave not equaled since 1901, England and Europe have been sweltering in temperatures greater than have been known in 50 years.

Alpine glaciers, dissolving under the abnormal heat, have swollen mountain streams to raging torrents.

In other sections, streams have dried up, wells gone dry and crops are parched.

Grazing lands are burned dry and stock raisers, without forage and with little water for their animals, are desperate.

Fires have caused large damage in many European forests. Inhabitants of villages scattered through the famous forest of Fontainbleau, near Paris, refuse to go to bed for fear fires, many of which have been put out by desperate efforts, will sweep the great wood.

"We have not been able to identify any exact causes for the conditions," says Dr. Charles F. Marvin, chief of the government Weather Bureau.

"There is not provable relations between the weather and sunspots, although sunspots are blamed by some. Sunspots occur and recur at intervals but it never has been possible to identify them as exerting a definite influence on weather.

"The most exact measurements of solar radiation reveal little if any change in temperature due to them. As a matter of fact, however, we are now passing through a period when sunspots are at the minimum.

"Neither is there any basis for ascribing unusual conditions of weather to earthquakes. It would be just as logical to ascribe earthquakes to unusual weather influences. There is no established proof either way."

One of the most unusual features of present world weather conditions Marvin said, is the similarity of conditions in America and Europe.

"Usually," he said, "they do not run parallel. When we have a hot summer in the United States, it generally is cool in Europe. When it is hot in Europe it norammly is cool here. But the present hot weather seems general throughout the temperature zones.

"What it is due to, no one can say with any degree of assurance."

Dr. E. D. Day, chief of the climatoleogical division of the bureau, says: "In the temperature zones, we normally expect cooler weather when the sun is hottest. That sounds paradoxical but it is a fact.

"The reason is that the sun's arys shine most intensely on the equator —in the tropic zone. The hotter the sun's rays at the equator, the more rapidly the air there is heated and the greater its rush upward.

"The greater the current of this upward-moving air at the equator, the greater the amount of cool air that must be drawn down from the north, across the temperature zones, and the cooler it is in the temperate regions.

"Now as to sunspots. All observers agree that the spots frequently appearing on the sun do not radiate the samae amount of heat as the remainder of that body. Therefore, when the sunspots are at a minimum as now, the sun should be hottest and the temperature, in the temperate zones, should be below rather than above normal.

An examination of Weather Bureau charts covering the past few weeks, shows a temperature averaging 10 to 12 degrees above normal in the Great Lakes region, the Dakotas and Minnesota, and from 5 to 8 degrees above for the remainder of the central states and the Atlanite and Pacific coasts.

Only one section, comprising Texas, Oklahoma and New Mexico, has been below normal.

Rainfall, however, has been well distributed and none of the drought conditions reported in Europe are present locally.

Compared to the summer of 1901, when the mercury stuck above 100 degrees in Mississippi valley states for over 30 days, the present summer has been a balmy, pleasant and exhilarating one.

"Ouija! What's the good word?"

MY YOUNG sister.
HAS A Ouija board.
AND SHE believes it.
AND TALKS to Noah.
AND I think she talks.
TO HER best fellow.
WHO'S DEAD but doesn't know it,
AND I used to give her.
THE LOUD, rude laugh.
BUT I'M sorry now.
BECAUSE LAST night.
I WAS home alone.
SO I got the board.
AND PUT in a call.
FOR JOHN Barleycorn.
AND OTHER departed spirits.
BUT THE line was busy.
FOR NOTHING happened.
THEN I cheated a little.
AND IT spelled this.
"GRAMMASHOTTA SEVEN."

SO I shut off quick.
TO HEAD off any.
FURTHER FAMILY scandal.
THEN I stopped to smoke.
A CIGARETTE.
AND AFTER a while.
I CRANKED up weejee.
AND ALL of a sudden.
IT STARTED off.
AND QUICK as a flash.
IT SAID something.
"THEY SATISFY."

"SATISFY"—that's the good word. Just light up a Chesterfield and see what experts can do with fine Turkish and Domestic tobaccos when they blend them in that can't-be-copied Chesterfield way. You'll say "they satisfy."

THREE-CENT STAMP MAY BE RESTORED BY CONGRESS

Higher Letter Postage Rate Is Contemplated as One Means of Boosting Revenue.

Washington, July 26.—Plans for building a new tax law took more definite form yesterday as preparations were completed for the actual beginning today of revision of the revenue laws by the house ways and means committee.

President Harding heard details of what house leaders propose to do from Chairman Fordney of the committee, and information leaked out indicating that the 3-cent postage stamp might be resorted to as a revenue producer. The return of the 3-cent stamp was understood to have been discussed at the conference Saturday between Secretary Mellon and Mr. Fordney. The suggestion will be taken up with the postoffice department before any further moves are made, it was stated.

In the search for methods of obtaining about 4 million dollars a year, members of the committee were declared to have talked also of a stamp tax on bank checks, but that suggestion was understood to have been frowned on by the treasury. Other stamp tax proposals may get some consideration in the committee, but members said they feared the reaction.

LAMKIN LIKES IT HERE

"I shall be disappointed if I am not going to be permitted to take my part in the affairs of this community. I can't live in a town if I can't have a part in it. I can't help put Maryville on the map—it is already there—I can only help to keep it there and make it the best place in the United States to live in."

Forty members of the Chamber of Commerce were present at the luncheon. Mr. Lamkin and Roy A. Kinnaird, county farm agent, who explained the plans for the Farmers' Picnic August 25 and 25, were the only speakers.

Everything for QUALITY —nothing for show

THAT'S OUR IDEA in making CAMELS—the Quality Cigarette.

Why, just buy Camels and look at the package! It's the best packing science has devised to keep cigarettes fresh and full flavored for your taste. Heavy paper outside—secure foil wrapping inside and the revenue stamp over the end to seal the package and keep it air-tight.

And note this! There's nothing flashy about the Camel package. No extra wrappings that do not improve the smoke. Not a cent of needless expense that must come out of the quality of the tobacco.

Camels wonderful and exclusive Quality wins on merit alone.

Because, men smoke Camels who want the taste and fragrance of the finest tobaccos, expertly blended. Men smoke Camels for Camels smooth, refreshing mildness and their freedom from cigaretty aftertaste.

Camels are made for men who think for themselves.
